On an additional sheet of paper please answer the following essay question in approximately 300 – 500 words:

Research, create, and pursue a plan to help Ohio's agriculture industry! What would be an ideal campaign slogan for animal agriculture that would contradict the recent negativity from the HSUS and animal activist groups? Describe what the positives are in animal agriculture within the state of Ohio and how we can use your slogan to campaign for Ohio's number one industry. Discuss ways that Ohio farmers can teach their neighbors the importance of what we do and how it affects them.
